

In Their Shoes:

HEALING THROUGH ART COMMUNITY EXHIBITION

Monday, October 30 • 6 p.m.
Community Center

Participants may submit artwork in any medium that represents the following themes:

What healing looks like

How culture creates safety and protective factors

How abuse has impacted their lives

Historical Trauma and Historical Resilience

Safe communities

Healthy families

Due to the sensitive nature of the exhibit, we ask that all participants submit their piece to the Victim Services team. We also understand that everyone is at different places in their healing journey and may want to submit anonymously. We are happy to take and exhibit anonymous submissions but be mindful that we can't control who sees your artwork. Please be mindful of your own safety and privacy.

Light refreshments will be provided.

For more information or to submit artwork, contact: Casey Kasper-Welles at Casey.Kasper-Welles@PokagonBand-nsn.gov or Nicole Sailor at Nicole.Sailor@PokagonBand-nsn.gov. All submissions must be received by Thursday, October 26, by 5 p.m.
