

CALLING ALL INDIGENOUS STUDENTS AGES 12-24

WHO ARE INTERESTED IN TOURING THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3

DEPART FROM THE POKAGON COMMUNITY CENTER AT 7:45 A.M.

PARTICIPANTS WILL ENJOY

- A tour of the University of Michigan Museum of Art featuring two exhibits by indigenous artists
- Lunch and a conversation with Angeline Bouley, author of “Firekeeper’s Daughter”
- The opportunity to meet University of Michigan Indigenous students and faculty

Transportation will be provided if needed.

This is an overnight tour, so make sure to pack accordingly.

Register here or email Adela.Galvan-Guerrero@PokagonBand-nsn.gov if you have questions.

