

POKÉGNEK BODÉWADMIK POKAGON BAND TRIBAL POLICE

The Pokagon Tribal Police Department is joining fellow Law Enforcement agencies in the movement to raise cancer awareness. What better way to grow awareness than growing beards? Each participating Officer will put down the razors and shaving creme for a pledge of $40. When an officer secures at least five (5) additional $30 pledges, they can wear their beard through January. Those raising at least $200 can grow their beards through February.

No Shave November

POKAGON BAND TRIBAL POLICE

All proceeds will be donated to a Pokagon Tribal cancer victim and/or family.

Note that anyone that does not want to participate in the actual growing of facial hair can still donate!

Female Officers may purchase/wear a light blue headband for $10.

If you have any questions, please call Jill Hershberger or Beth Klug at (269) 782-2232 or email: Jill.Hershberger@PokagonBand-nsn.gov or Beth.Klug@PokagonBand-nsn.gov.

GROW Officers will begin to grow their facial hair and collect their pledges on November 1.

SHOW Officers will show their facial hair or wear their light blue headbands during November and longer if they meet the criteria of pledge.

The goal of No Shave November is to grow awareness by embracing our hair, which many cancer patients lose, and letting it grow wild and free. Donate the money you typically spend on shaving and grooming to educate about cancer prevention, save lives, and aid those fighting the battle.
