

Please join Pokagon Ogitchedaw as they honor the selfless service of Pokagon warriors and brothers,
Henry and Peter Quigno

Saturday, Nov. 11
11 a.m.
400 Lake Blvd
St. Joseph, Michigan

This event is organized by the Algonquin Chapter of Algonquin Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) and sponsored by Pokagon Ogitchedaw Board and Center of History & Culture

Each year, the Daughters of the American Revolution celebrate the end of WWI at the special stone monument featuring 100 names of Gold Star Boys, including Pokagon warrior, Henry Quigno.

- 11 a.m. – sirens sounded for one minute
by the St. Joseph Fire Department
- Moment of silence
- Eagle whistle
Anthony Forester
- Hand drum and welcome song
Sterling Big Bear
- Colors
Pokagon Ogitchedaw
- Invocation
Donald Sumners
- Flag song and retreat post colors
- Greeting
Regent of the DAR
- Quigno brothers background
Anthony Forester
- Wreath laying on the monument
Pokagon Ogitchedaw
- 21-gun salute
Stevensville American Legion
- Final remarks
DAR religious leader
- Special gift
Pokagon Ogitchedaw