

Fixture, Appliance, Down Payment, & Rehabilitation Program (FADPR) ANNOUNCES CHANGES!

What you need to know:

This is not a new program.

If your household has used your FADPR benefits, you cannot use again.

FADPR benefits Homeowners and Renters.

The FADPR benefit remains at $7,500 per household.

FADPR is no longer grant funded and Tribal Council has amended the policy to allow for additional qualified items.

Eligible items now include almost anything for operation of the household: appliances, fixtures, furnishings, furniture, lawn and garden equipment, sheds, decks, fences, patio furniture, and many other things.

You may still use the program to purchase a home.

You may now use the program to move into a home – rental or owned.

The benefit can be used for a deposit, first and last month's rent, truck rental, moving company expenses, utility deposits, and other moving expenses.

Direct purchase retailers are only Lowes and Home Depot.

You may shop online where a greater selection of items are available, but you will need to print out your order and take it to a local store for processing.
